Please read carefully:

At the first lesson of each calendar month I will come prepared to pay for that month's lessons. (The normal fee is $75 a month, somewhat less for scholarships or family discounts - see website). I will attend all scheduled lessons and arrive ready to begin on time. If I have to miss a scheduled lesson for any reason, I understand that my teacher may not be able to make it up, and the lesson fee will not be refunded. I have noted the date for our Finale program (Sunday, May 21, 2023) and will make every effort to be present. I am willing to practice regularly according to my teacher's recommendation.

Lessons are a family commitment. Parents play a key role in a student's success, encouraging regular, consistent practice and attendance at all lessons.

I will be responsible to see that my child arrives at his lessons prepared and on time, I will pay the lesson fee one month in advance at the first lesson of each month, and I will make every effort to attend the Finale program.
